

Panos Koutsourakis serves as ABS Director of Sustainability Strategy, based in Singapore. In his current position, Koutsourakis is responsible for leading the sustainability strategy with a particular focus on green financing, alternative investments, and innovative solutions linked to industry 4.0.

Koutsourakis has spent over two decades in the shipping industry, in a number of roles spanning shipping companies to classification services. Previous roles include serving as Global Technology Leader for a Class Society and Innovation, Technology, and Projects Leader for GasLog.

Koutsourakis holds a MEng in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering from the National Technical University of Athens.